

School Alma Mater

O' Steele High School, all hail to thee,
Home of honor, truth, and dignity.
Forever loyal, brave and right

We sing our praise to hallowed Knights.
And tho' we go our separate ways
True to black and silver all our days.
Beneath the blue of Texas sky,
Stands our alma mater, Steele High.

Directions

1. Change the font of the lyrics to Times New Roman, size 12 point and double space.
2. Center the text in the middle of the page.
3. Underneath the lyrics, add a picture of a Medieval knight by using the Search the Web option.
4. Highlight the last line in yellow.
5. Link the school name to the Byron P. Steele, II, High School website.
6. Create a comment on the word truth. The comment should be your name.
7. Below the picture you've attached, insert a table that is 2 x 1 table. In one cell type your name and in the second cell type the date.