

Mrs. Rosales' Counseling Program

As part of my comprehensive guidance program, I will be offering a variety of counseling options for students, as needed.

Responsive Services:

Purpose: To provide short-term counseling interventions on behalf of students that have immediate needs or concerns that put their educational, career, personal, and social development at risk.

Individual Planning:

Purpose: to assist students with their educational, career, personal, and social development.

System Support:

Purpose: to identify and coordinate resources and activities on campus and in the community that directly benefit our students.

Guidance Curriculum:

Purpose: a preventative part of my program that teaches developmentally appropriate skills needed to learn to manage feelings and emotions.

Whole group Guidance:

These types of lessons will be delivered each month to all students and grade levels. Each month I will focus on a new skill to teach to our students.

Small group guidance:

Small group counseling is designed to assist students with skills to positively impact their social, emotional, and academic success.

Individual Counseling:

Counseling for students identified with needs for short-term intervention to assist with individual needs.

Referrals: Referrals for outside counseling can be provided as needed. Please feel free to contact me for a referral
