

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

DYNAMIC LEADER

- Help and support others
- Good moral character – lead by example
- Willing to take the initiative

Help and support others by leading by example with integrity and taking the initiative willingly.

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

SELF-MOTIVATED

- Dedicated
- Sense of purpose
- Application/real world skills

Possess and practice grit and perseverance through dedicated application of real world skills and driven by a sense of purpose

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

SKILLED COMMUNICATOR

- Transparency
- Confidence
- Understand situation/flexibility

Communicate with transparency and confidence, tailored to the audience/situation.

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

SERVICE ORIENTED

- Sense of Community (Volunteering and servicing others)
- Citizenship
- Selflessness

Demonstrate selfless citizenship and a sense of community through volunteering by serving others.

TRAITS OF A GRADUATE

FUTURE READY

- Open to learn (from) knowledge skills and experiences to be ready for the real world
- Possessing grit and perseverance – resilience
- Critical thinking skills in order to adapt and be prepared for changes

Utilize resiliency and critical thinking skills to adapt and be prepared for changes in the real world.