

EVERYDAY SUCCESSES

VOLUME 3, ISSUE 14

NOVEMBER 18-22, 2019

1 – Congratulations to Samuel Clemens High School volleyball team after it qualified for this weekend's state tournament! We have followed their journey all season, and their dominant performance in the regionals was spectacular. Win state! #DynamicLeader
#SelfMotivated

2 – Kudos to Sierra Hampton at Clemens High School and of the campus' culinary arts program. She was accepted to Johnson and Wales University to further her gastronomic endeavors and was also awarded an $18,000 scholarship! #DynamicLeader
#SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator
#ServiceOriented #FutureReady

3 – The Byron P. Steele High School culinary students participated in the St. Philip's College Fall Invitational and placed first and second in Hospitality! #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated

4 - The Steele High School AFJROTC spent part of last weekend helping keep FM 1103 clean as part of its Adopt-A-Highway participation. Meanwhile, members of the Clemens HS Student 2 Student program also took a huge chunk of their weekend to clean Veterans Park. It is great to see our students take pride in their community and neighborhoods. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #ServiceOriented
